Non-liability clause for accredited persons at the 41st TIKI RALLY VELENJE 2026

1st article

I am aware of the risks and dangers inherent in motorsport events and hereby obligate myself to immediately and unconditionally obey the directives issued by the organisers, the stewards, the police, the officials and their representatives, as well as their orders (in writing, oral and visually) which especially entails not entering any restricted areas.

2nd article

I hereby state that I act at my own risk when I leave any area reserved for media and any safe publicly accessible area on the rally stage, even if my staying outside above-mentioned areas may be tolerated by the organisers.

3rd article

I hereby resign the right for me and any of my dependants to hold liable:

- the FIA, AŠSLO, their chairmen, members, executives, salaried and unsalaried employees
- the organisers, their representatives, officials and assistants
- the drivers, co-drivers, registered keepers, vehicle owners, competitors and their assistants, as far as it concerns a race, a special stage designed to reach high speed or the shortest possible driving time or a reconnaissance to this behalf
- authorities, racing officials and other persons connected with the organisation of the event
- for bodily harm, material damage and economic loss as far as I am staying outside the areas reserved for and publicly accessible to spectators (see the 2nd article) and an accident or damage has been neither with intent nor want, but only negligently caused by the above-mentioned group of persons

4th article

I am aware that a violation of the 1. article will lead to the revocation of the accreditation.
